Ausma Judickiene & Family Plot 51a

In only their second year at the allotment this family has done wonders. Taking what was a paddock into the beautiful plot that they tend today. From lugging a few tons of compost up from pile at the bottom, to fixing the shed and getting and keeping the kids involved throughout, their plot is all about family. They should all be very proud of the result, it's a real credit to them all.

